

GET PREPARED TOGETHER

Social networks are our most important defence against disasters. Get ready to deal with any emergency by getting to know the people around you. It's not about being a nosy neighbour but being comfortable and able to call on someone nearby if needed.

CITY OF GREATER

GEE LONG

HELLO NEIGHBOUR

This is (name/s):

I/We live at (address):

If you need to get in touch, just call or text me/us on:

We're open to:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Saying hello – give me a wave. | <input type="checkbox"/> A check-in from my neighbours. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Putting out the bins. | <input type="checkbox"/> A helping hand. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Collecting mail. | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Drop in for a cuppa and a chat. | |

Some people in the community may need more help than others in an emergency. Help can often be provided by neighbours, particularly when existing relationships exist and they are close by.
